

TEYMOOR NABILI

JOURNALIST AND BROADCASTER

An international journalist and veteran broadcaster of current affairs and business issues, respected for his intelligent, engaging questions and moderating skills

TEYMOOR NABILI

his expertise

Teymoor is an international journalist and TV news anchor with 25 years of experience. He has lived and worked in London, New York, Hong Kong, Kuala Lumpur, Doha and Singapore, where he is now based. Over this time, he has devised, edited, written, produced and presented news and current affairs programming for Al Jazeera, BBC, CNBC, CNN and Channel 4 and now as a freelance producer and presenter with Channel News Asia.

He has covered major stories including the 9/11 attack from New York City, the Asian Tsunami disaster from Sri Lanka; the Iran Presidential election of 2009 from Tehran, the 2008 Olympics from Beijing and the earthquake/tsunami of 2011 from Japan.

He has interviewed numerous world leaders and newsmakers, among them former Prime Ministers of Malaysia, Dr Mohammad Mahathir, Prime Minister of Singapore, Lee Hsien Loong, the current and former Secretary Generals of the United Nations, Ban Ki Moon and Kofi Annan, the former head of the European Central Bank Jean-Claude Trichet, and other international personalities including David Beckham.

Voted 'Best Presenter/Anchor' at the 2005 Asia Television Awards and shared a UK Royal Television Society Award for coverage of the Olympic bribery scandal in Utah.

TEYMOOR NABILI

key facts

Currently ...

- Producer/ Presenter, Channel News Asia.
- Founder of start-up on-line news service, The Signal.
- Professional Moderator.

Formerly ...

- 2005: Kuala Lumpur – joined Al Jazeera English.
- 2002: Singapore – CNBC on Asian business news.
- 1999: New York – CNN, creating documentaries on the rise and fall of the dot.com phenomenon.
- 1995: London - European Business News (latterly acquired by CNBC). and joined the BBC presenting business and world news as well as World Service Radio and the newly-launched BBC News 24.
- 1993: Hong Kong: Reporting on the stock market for The Standard.
- His career began in London with Money Marketing, a weekly publication for the financial industry.

Flies from Singapore

Chairing and moderating a range of events in Asia and other regions

Sample engagements:

Chairing a full day conference programme:
engaged to introduce the event, moderate the full programme, to introduce sessions and speakers and panels, to ask some questions from the chair, and field questions from the participants.

Moderating a keynote session engaged specifically for a key session on the programme, with a VIP guest speaker, possibly conducting a live-on-stage in-conversation style interview, also fielding questions from the floor.

Hosting an event
engaged to be the host or master of ceremonies for a special event or awards ceremony.

TEYMOOR NABILI

what people say

His keen intellect makes him an excellent interviewer. In particular, his ability to actually listen to what people are saying to him, and to interact with the answers they give, puts him head and shoulders above the rest ... Teymoor is by far and away one of the best in the business. Christopher Slaughter, CEO, CASBAA

His engaging style, together with an enquiring mind, grasp of current events globally and his ability to articulate clearly his message makes him a stand-out choice as a moderator and MC. David Eldon, former Chairman HSBC Asia Pacific

Teymoor skilfully guided interactions, not only between panellists, but also among the large public audience. His innate ability to continuously capture and reformulate the essence of the discourse, while keeping both the debaters and the audience fully engaged, is a testament to his longstanding experience and expertise as a journalist and moderator. Nobody could have done it better. Andreas List, EU Senior Coordinator for ASEAN

engaging • interactive • intelligent

Useful links for Teymoor Nabili:

- TIB Speaker Web Page >> Go to Webpage
- TIB Speaker Profile >> Download PDF
- TIB Video Channel >> Watch Videos

Andrew Vine
CEO
The Insight Bureau
Exclusive Agency

Speaking & Moderating Requests:

+65-6300-2495

engage_us@insightbureau.com